North Carolina Association of Certified Public Accountants

Lifetime Achievement Award

The NCACPA Lifetime Achievement Award recognizes members for a lifetime of outstanding service to the profession and to his or her community. This award honors members who have made a significant contribution to the CPA profession and the community. The recipient will be recognized at the Annual Business Meeting. In addition, the award winner's membership dues are permanently waived.

Any NCACPA fellow member is eligible for the award if the following requirements are met:

A) The nominee is a member of NCACPA and has given at least ten years of volunteer service to the profession and the community.

B) The nominee must not be currently serving as an officer or member of the NCACPA Board of Directors.

The Lifetime Achievement Award winner will be selected by the association's Executive Committee and confirmed by the board of directors.

I nominate the following individual for the NCACPA Lifetime Achievement Award:
