With over 20 sessions to choose from, there's content to enhance the professional development of not only the CPAs who consult, audit, and manage nonprofit organizations, but the staff and board members who serve them as well. This year, bring your entire staff along to the only state-wide conference in North Carolina that focuses entirely on the accounting and financial issues surrounding nonprofit management.

Want a good laugh? Arrive a day early and catch stand-up comedian CPAs perform to raise money for the NC Center for Nonprofits.
